

SUCCESSFUL GRANT WRITING

City of Raleigh

May 28 & June 5, 2009

Helping you to be successful

Two 1-day grant-writing training programs were conducted with City of Raleigh staff members from varied departments and offices and members representing nonprofit organizations working with the City. The training program was designed for individuals with novice to beginner experience with writing grant proposals. Thirty-five individuals in the two training programs completed evaluation forms.

Complimentary comments about the program included:

- Presenter actually does what he teaches
- Dr. Carruthers is an excellent presenter and very knowledgeable with grants
- PowerPoint handout was useful; speakers were very knowledgeable
- Very informative
- Thank you for clarifying output and outcomes
- Instructors were very knowledgeable and entertaining

Evaluation Results

	This program presented ideas that were useful to me.	The presenters were knowledgeable and presented the material well.	The one-day length of the program was appropriate.*	The program presented the level of detail I expected.	The PowerPoint and handouts were useful.
Excellent	18 51%	29 74%	10 29%	14 40%	19 54%
Very Good	17 49%	9 26%	16 46%	18 51%	8 23%
Excellent+Very Good	35 100%	35 100%	26 74%	32 91%	27 77%
Average	--	--	7 20%	3 9%	7 20%
Poor	--	--	2 6%	--	1 3%
Does Not Apply	--	--	--	--	--
No Response	--	--	--	--	--

* Note: Most of the individuals rating the length of the workshop average or poor indicated they desired a longer training program.

 Note: Production of the PowerPoint handout for the first session was poor quality on some slides and this was corrected for the second session. Individuals attending the first session received a copy of the corrected PowerPoint.